

Colleagues

For any freelance professional, it is important to have colleagues with whom one can share both work and ideas. These are some of those with whom Barbara Heinzen continues to work.

Name	Website address
1. SOAS The School of Oriental and African Studies brought Barbara Heinzen to London in the early 1980s. Today, she remains a member of the Centre of African Studies and a Research Associate.	www.soas.ac.uk/
2. Napier Collyns, Global Business Network Napier Collyns is one of the founding members of Global Business Network. He has been Barbara Heinzen's teacher since they first met at Shell in 1984.	www.gbn.com
3. Oliver Sparrow, Challenge Forum Barbara Heinzen and Oliver Sparrow worked together in Shell's Group Planning Department in the mid-1980s. Today the Challenge Forum is known for the strength of its research and argument.	http://www.chforum.org
4. LIFT The London International Festival of Theatre has been pushing the boundaries of what theatre is and can be for over 25 years. Barbara Heinzen became involved with LIFT as an advisor to their innovative Business Arts Forum from 1993-2003.	www.liftfest.org
5. Hardin Tibbs Hardin Tibbs's interests are in sustainability and technology. He is especially well-known for his thinking on "Industrial Ecology". He and Barbara Heinzen first worked together in Singapore in the mid-1990s.	www.hardintibbs.com
6. Philippe Vandebroek, WS Network Philippe Vandebroek and his colleagues are dedicated to helping their clients look at the whole system around them. He and Barbara Heinzen first worked together on energy and sustainability issues in the late 1990s.	http://www.ws-network.com
7. Arthur Muliro, Society for International Development	www.sidint.org

Name	Website address
Barbara Heinzen began working with Arthur Muliro in 1997, when he invited her to help with the process design of the East African scenarios work. They have worked with a wide team of East Africans for the past ten years.
8. Daniel Erasmus, DTN Daniel Erasmus takes a special interest in internet technologies and their future. His website on scenario thinking is one of the best around.	http://dtn.net  http://scenariothinking.org
9. Nicole Boyer, Adaptive Edge Nicole Boyer's practice does outstanding work in new techniques of organisational learning. The learning journeys she organises are innovative and challenging for all concerned.	Website: http://www.adaptive-edge.com/  Weblog: http://www.fuzzysignals.com

Meeting of colleagues in Barbara Heinzen's rooms, 2004. Photograph by Philippe Vandenbroeck.

---

Meeting of colleagues in Barbara Heizen's rooms, 2004. Photographic collage by Philippe Vandebroek.