

Pangani River Trip

Tanzania Scenarios Project – January 2002

Bertram Eyakuze

Elsie Kanza

Barbara Heinzen

Njonjo Mue

Nicholas – guide

The Pangani River

Nicholas, our guide

The abandoned Japanese fishing school

The village we visited

The red carpet across the mud

House, hanging fish & fishing net

The clean kitchen

Coconut beer, bicycle for transporting beer

Mr. Saidi,
Ex-gov't worker running own coconut beer
business

A coconut plantation – established 19th century

Fishing in a tributary of
the Pangani River

Prawn fisherman

The fisherman's
basket of prawns